Newsletter 07.03.25

It has been a busy week at school with lots of activities taking place including Estyn, a visit from the Deputy Leader of the Council, World Book day, St David's Mass and Eisteddfod celebration, and I am SO proud of the children who have been amazing, working hard being polite and showing exemplary behavior, they really are a credit to you!

Eisteddfod work has been completed today and staff will judge the competitions and announce the winners on Monday, the BARD will also be announced and they will have the opportunity to read their poem to the whole school.

Attendance

We continue to encourage good attendance and the class winner's this week are:
